WAR OF RACES.

Terrible bloodshed in Mississippi.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Dec. 17.—A State's Waltham, Miss., special says: There was a terrible riot last night at this place, and to-day twelve white men and 150 negroes lie dead as the result. For a long time there has been much ill feeling between the whites and blacks at this place, aggravated by the impudence of the latter, and yesterday the two elements became involved in a quarrel which ended in a great loss of life. The facts, as far as they can be ascertained, are as follows: A negro and a white man became engaged in a quarrel and the negro was killed. This was an excuse for assault, and immediately a black horde swept down upon the whites, who were greatly outnumbered.
Knowing it was a fight to death, the whites prepared to receive their black assailants, and when the battle was ended it was found that twelve whites and over 150 negroes had been killed.

MORE BLOODSHED EXPECTED.

Memphis, Dec. 17.—Only meagdetails of the riot near Waltham, Miss., have been received. The causes which led to the disturbance are said to be as follows: About two months ago Farmer Lyteng, near that town, had his gin house and eight bales of cotton burned. The act was thought to be incendiary and the matter was placed in the hands of an officer to investigate. A criminal suspicion pointed to some negroes and yesterday an officer attempted to arrest the one who was believed to be the leader of the gang who burned the gin. The negro resisted arrest and gave the officer a severe beating. He returned to Waltham for assistance and a posse of white men went with him to arrest the suspected gin burner. As they approached his cabin they were fired upon by about 500 well armed negroes. The result was that four of the posse were instantly killed and eight wounded, three mortally. The greatest excitement prevailed and an armed force of seventy-five men left Meridian, Miss., this forenoon for the scene of the trouble and doubtless more bloodshed will follow.

CONFLICTING REPORTS.

Meridian Miss., Dec. 17.—Reports from the scene of the riot are conflicting. It is now stated that no negroes were killed, but that twelve white men lost their lives. A special train left here at 1 p. m. bearing troops for the scene of the trouble.

A BLOODY TIME EXPECTED.

New Orleans, Dec. 17.—The Picayune's Macon, Miss., special says: The people here are excited over the killing of Henry Maury, Cobb and Vaughn, three white men in Kemper county, by negroes and the wounding of other whites. Among the number was Tom Nicholson, who was shot in the body and had an arm broken. No negroes were killed or wounded.
Twenty young men left this city for the scene of the trouble, two of them being recently from the north. The negroes are said to be well armed and are assembled in mass and seem determined to fight it out. Various rumors exist. It is said that six white men were killed and as many more wounded, and that the trouble originated in two negro men whipping a white boy. W. B. Haro, a resident of Natchez county, near the Kemper line, was also killed. It is feared that there will be bloody work to-night as the negroes are concentrating.
Nearly every town in East Mississippi is sending aid to the whites.

Texas Rangers.

FORT WORTH, Dec. 17.—A company of rangers is expected here in the morning to go to Erath county to protect the property at the Strawd coal mines, threatened by discharged miners. The company has employed a number of Pennsylvania miners to go to work and the old miners will not permit it. The old miners have been parading through the country about the mines firing pistols and acting badly. Several days ago some of them assaulted an employee of the company. The old miners never worked for the present company, but were employed by the former company.

Court of Appeals Decisions.

TYLER, Dec. 17.—In the regular session this morning the following decisions were handed down by the court of appeals:

Affirmed—Bud Robinson vs. the state, from Besque.

Rehearings refused—Felix Butcher vs. the state, from Hays, and H. H.
Enslay vs. Edward Eashburn, from Grayson.

The following cases were submitted —John Laws vs. the state, from Franklin; Jos. Crowley vs. the state, from Jack; Merrill Owens vs. the state, from Lamar; Jim Jones vs. the state, from McLennan.

A Failure at Paris.

PARIS, Tex., Dec. 17.—The Lamar County Co-operative Association, with J. Y. Collins as president, went under to-day, giving a deed of trust and appointing E. M. Bryant as trustee.
This was a mercantile association which has been running for about eighteen months. Among the creditors of largest amounts is the Alliance Exchange at Dallas, their claims amounting to $2,000.

A Sheriff Shot.

GRAHAM, Tex., Dec. 17.—M. D.
Wallace, sheriff of Young county, was dangerously shot by one of the Marlow brothers to-day at Benson's farm, fifteen miles south of Graham. The five Marlow brothers were arrested several months ago for theft of horses in the Indian Territory. The one that shot Wallace was charged with murder in Wilbarger county and for this offense Wallace had a warrant for his arrest. Tom Collier, deputy sheriff, was also very slightly shot in the neck, the ball grazing his head above the right eye.

Mysterious Disappearance.

OTTAWA, Dec. 17.—Last Monday a mail bag containing money was delivered at the Grand Trunk station here but it disappeared in some mysterious way, and that was the last seen of it. The postoffice authorities have been working on the case during the week but thus far have been unable to obtain the slightest clue as to the whereabouts of the bag.

Celebrating a Railroad.

DALLAS, Tex., Dec. 17.—Information is received to-day from Lancaster people in the city that a meeting was held in that town Saturday night to take proper steps to celebrate the arrival of the Dallas and Waco road, which is expected to be completed to Lancaster next Saturday. Another meeting will be held to-night, at which all necessary arrangements will be perfected for a great time.
